
The TWS Nexion Memorandum

The image below is of the memorandum sent by the TWS Nexion at the beginning of November 2021 to Occult colleagues. [1] It led to the discussions recounted in the section titled The Esoteric Philosophy And Seven Fold Way Of Anton Long - A Debate in the text From The O9A Seven Fold Way To The Hebdomian Way: A New Beginning [2] the gist of which discussions concerned the anarchist/nihilist O9A principle of the 'authority of individual judgement' and what had recently resulted from that principle: such as the machinations and propaganda of the Tempel ov Blood which described itself as an O9A chapter and was accepted as such by many following the esoteric philosophy of Anton Long but was recently exposed as a front for the FBI. [3]

The TWS Nexion was of the view that the principle of the 'authority of individual judgement' - and the consequences that were described in The Esoteric Philosophy And Seven Fold Way Of Anton Long, A Debate - were on balance detrimental to the quest for Lapis Philosophicus. Hence their reformation as The Seven Oxonians. [4]

After considering the matter for some time we have decided to cease to align ourselves with the esoteric philosophy of "Anton Long" presenced in the causal esoterically as "The Order Of Nine Angles" and exoterically as The Seven Fold Way.

Our raison d'être in this matter is our collective pathei-mathos which resulted from our individual quests for Lapis Philosophicus, initially by means of the O9A Seven Fold Way, and which learning fundamentally changed our perspective, understanding, and apprehensions, resulting in and revealing our disinterest in and incompatibility with the games and the trickery presenced by the O9A's Labyrinthos Mythologicus; with the interference in the world by means of politics whether esoterically, in the form of Aeonic Sorcery, or otherwise; the causal abstractions and dialectic involved in supporting or using for whatever reason political forms such as National Socialism and countering what has been termed "the Magian ethos", and any and all forms or presencings of the Occult including "Satanism" however defined or presenced.

Such collective pathei-mathos has also resulted in we few developing our own presencing of the quest, the ἄνοδος, for Lapis Philosophicus - a modern hermetic ἐπιστήμη (épistémé) that does not involve any Occult practices, and eschews all politics and political ideologies, and all notions of changing the world and societies by any means be such means political, religious, ideological, social or Occult.

In practice, this new, Hebdomian, way is an individual interior and essentially mystical quest which can if required involve a personal guidance and which therefore is not a group, or association, or organization with members, and which does not and cannot recruit or proselytize and has no dialectical methodology or mythos.

In effect, our understanding now is that the complex esoteric philosophy presenced by "Anton Long" with its Occultism, its mythos, the nihilism of the principle of the authority of individual judgement, its methodology of using forms such as politics, antinomianism, Aeonic Sorcery and individual Sorcery such as Insight Roles, to disrupt and change the world and evolve the individual, is Old Aeon, unhelpful, unnecessary, and as recent events have revealed in its evolution and nihilism has resulted in many individuals committing dishonourable deeds.
